

New Diocesan Seminary

Feast of Epiphany Chosen For Cornerstone Laying

The office of His Lordship Bishop Lawrence Bianchi announced that the laying of the Cornerstone of the new Diocesan Seminary of the Holy Spirit which is under construction in the parish of Our Lady of Lourdes in Tai Kou Lao, Pokfulam, will take place on the feast of the Epiphany, Sunday, January 6, at 4 p.m.

His Lordship the Bishop will bless and lay the Stone.

The new seminary is being erected on a hill overlooking Pokfulam Road and Telegraph Bay. It will eventually provide accommodation for a hundred students. The plans include large chapel, classrooms, residential section and study and recreation rooms as well as covered playground. The construction is to be completed by Easter next year.

The new seminary will be easily accessible to parents and their boys and it is the Bishop's hope that this very fact will benefit the Diocesan Vocation Promotion Programme.