

The Bishop's Thanks

I THANK the Holy See for summoning me to serve as Bishop of Hong Kong.

I thank Cardinal Rossi, Prefect of the Sacred Congregation for the Evangelization of Peoples, Bishop Tou of Hsinchu and Bishop Donaghy, M.M., of Wuchow, who ordained me to the Episcopate.

I thank all who prepared or participated in the great ceremony of Ordination.

I thank the Vicar Capitular of Macao, the Government and Consular representatives, the representatives of Christian Churches, the representatives of the Buddhist Taoist and other religions, the Religious Superiors, the priests, the representatives of parishes and associations, and all other Catholics who came to the Cathedral for the ceremony of Ordination.

I thank all who sent congratulatory cables, cards, greetings or gifts.

Great pressure of work makes it impossible for me to thank everyone individually; but I wish you all to know that I value very deeply the great kindness that has been shown to me.

Again, I thank you all from my heart.

May God bless you all!

John Baptist Wu

Bishop of Hong Kong.
